PASS BEER ORDINANCE IN HEIGHTS

BOARD DIVIDED FOUR TO TWO SUNDAY SALOON CLOSING IS DENIED TO PETITIONERS

Woman's Club, P. T. A., Mothers' Club, Church
Officers and Members Get Slight Concession;
To Open Sundays at 12:30 P. M.

Probably the most interesting civic event in years in Arlington Heights occurred Wednesday evening when moral and religious forces of the community were prominently represented at a special Village Board meeting, and appealed to the board that while they were passing an ordinance for the licensing of saloons and other places to sell malt and vinous liquors of not over 3.2 per cent by weight, that these places be closed on Sundays.

While the demonstration and appearance was especially of the Woman's Club, the Mothers' Club and the P. T. A., superintendents of two Sunday schools made appeals as such, and of those taking part to present to lend their support were many clearly representative of Presbyterian, Methodist, and Christian Science churches.

The board was divided on the issue, Messrs. Barrett and Framberg opposed to Sunday opening, and the others, including the President of the Board, Mr. Flentie, for it; both in the voting, and the very interesting discussion. The claim was made by Mr. Flentie, that "the business men" demanded Sunday opening.

Action adopted by a majority of the board was slight concession to the petitioners—closing Sundays until 12:30 p. m. but to open them and stay open until midnight—during which most of the business can be done. Expectations were expressed that during the race track season, there being no races on Sunday, that Sunday conditions in Arlington Heights will be anything desirable to the residents.

The meeting opened at 7:35 o'clock; all board members present, and Mr. Framberg temporarily appointed to act as clerk. Mr. Humphrey Ashton presented a petition signed by the citizens present, and some others, worded as follows:

"To the President of the Board of Trustees of the Village of Arlington Heights:

"We, the undersigned citizens and voters of the Village of Arlington Heights, believing that an open Sunday saloon is not for the best interest of Arlington Heights, respectfully ask that when you consider a licensing ordinance for places selling beer (commonly called saloons), that said ordinance contain the provision that all of such places shall remain closed all day, each and every Sunday of the year."

Mr. Flentie explained the purpose of the meeting, it being an adjourned meeting to consider an ordinance for regulation of malt and vinous liquors. Mr. Thal, village attorney, then read the proposed ordinance. Its provisions are summarized in a separate column.

As originally read, the ordinance provided that saloons should be closed from 12 midnight to 6 a. m. every day in the week.

Fines were to be $5 to $200 for each violation, and the licenses subject to revocation by the President of the Board of Trustees at his discretion.

After the reading of the ordinance, the Clerk read the petition cited above, and the names signed to it. Mr. Flentie asked, "Do you want to take action in the petition?"

The Chairman of the Citizenship committee of the Woman's Club, Mrs. Burton A. Noyes, then arose, and announcing her office said, "I protest the opening of the saloons on Sunday as a menace to good citizenship."

The President of the Parent-Teacher association, Mrs. Raymond Atkinson, spoke next, saying, "I want to enter a protest against saloons being open on Sunday. We certainly do not want it."

The President of the Woman's Club, Mrs. Eugene Heller, then rose and added her official protest.

Representing the Mothers' club, Mrs. John Sayers spoke likewise.

The Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School, Mr. Harvey Daggett, appealed on behalf of the Sunday school children. The Superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday school, Mr. Clarence I. Davis, spoke next in a direct appeal that children should not have to pass the open saloon on their way Sunday morning. The Superintendent of the Christian Science Sunday school also was in the group, and was one of the petitioners.

The President of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Joseph Roth, registered her protest against Sunday saloons.

Mrs. Maude Parker of the Woman's Club, and a veteran battler for civic welfare, next entered her protest.

Adults, 25 cents; children, 10 cents. Tickets may be purchased from members of the ball club or at Lora's Sweet Shoppe, 210 North Dunton street.

The picture will be Richard Dix in the "Great Jasper."

A grand turn out at this program will be very much appreciated by the club. Don't forget the date, June 6 and 7 at the Arlington Theatre.

COOPERATION OPENS BANK AT WHEELING

Pledges of Stockholders and Depositors Brings Desired Results

When stockholders and depositors work together for the avowed purpose of re-opening a community bank it can be done even in these days of money shortage. That was proven last Saturday at Wheeling, when the doors of the Wheeling State Bank were thrown open for the resumption of regular business after nearly three months of inactivity.

The approval of the state auditor can be accepted as proof that this bank is sound in fact as well as in principle. Many bank officials in communities as small as Wheeling might have become discouraged over the delay and the stringent requirements of the state auditor, but the directors of this bank, realizing the need of the community and the desire of the citizens have worked unceasingly to get the bank reopened. It was no easy task. Considerable cash had to be raised by the individual stockholders; the bank was asked to charge bonds held to market value and dispose of some issues; the customers of the institution helped by pledging part of their deposits. Thus new capital, payment of obligations, due the bank, sale of bonds and the volunteered waving of a percentage of deposits, coupled with the market rise in highways, directing tourists obligingly to facilities available, and putting "Welcome" signs in places of business. It was expressed that many lines of business could profit by welcoming World's Fair visitors and providing for their comfort away from the congestion, noises and dirt of the city. They would get hair cuts, gasoline, meals, and other personal and motorists' requirements. Residents would be helped by being able to rent rooms.

Mr. Julius Flentie, president of the Village, opened the meeting stating the purpose of it, and asked for the election of a permanent chairman. Mr. Herman Boeger was elected. Mr. Herman H. "Hi" Meyer, was elected secretary.

With the moratorium proclamation of Governor Horner and President Roosevelt, literally overnight new requirements were set up by federal authorities and in addition to the old established standard of "solidity" a new basis of security was decreed, that of "liquidity." This presented unexpected problems to practically every bank in the country. Some were fortunate in having wealthy stockholders, who put in new capital or in many cases quietly took over the slow assets which were perfectly sound but did not comply with the new rule for "liquidity." This is what was done in many banks that opened without much delay.

When the new rules were established they presented serious problems and an unfortunate feature of the situation was the unavoidable congestion of work in the state auditor's office and the time required to give each bank a complete analysis of what it should do to bring its affairs in line with the new requirements. Those outside the bank can not appreciate the details involved and the time required to work them out.

Much water has gone over the dam since March 3; many wild stories have been circulated; many unfounded rumors have been whispered, but the fact remains that the Wheeling bank has complied with the exacting requirements; it has reopened with the good wishes of the state authorities and the confidence of the community that their bank is stronger than ever and is a permanent fixture in Wheeling.

Members of the Board of Education are Theodore Militzer, president; A. C. Haake, secretary; Herman Girms, Henry J. Ehard, C. I. Davis, John T. Sayers, George W. Kost.

Baccalaureate Service

The High School auditorium was crowded upstairs and down Sunday evening at the baccalaureate service. In black mortar board caps and gowns, and escorted by the Juniors, the Senior class slowly marched in to the processional music by Elgar, played by Miss Patrick, and occupied front seats in the audience section. Upon the platform were pastors of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Evangelical churches in Arlington Heights, also the principal, Mr. Brown. The other churches in Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect were not represented.

The invocation was given by the Rev. J. H. Ellerbrake of St. John's Evangelical church. Music was by a sextet consisting of Mr. Costain, tenor; Dorothy Landee and Ruth Wenzel, sopranos; Doris Crofoot and Dorothy Jasper, altos; William Rateike, bass. Selections given were "Gloria Patri (Psalms)" and "Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" (Bach); well sung, beautiful classic numbers.

Scripture reading (1 Cor. 3) was given by the Rev. H. A. Kossack of the First Presbyterian church.

The sermon was by the Rev. W. L. Whipple of the First Methodist Episcopal church, taking as his text the 9th verse of the chapter just read, "For we are laborers together with God" (R. V. "God's fellow workers"). From striking illustrations from modern achievement, 40-year old rays from the giant star Arcturus used to start the lighting of the World's Fair, Picard's prophecy that cosmic rays would some day light and heat our homes, the enormous power of leverage, and the possibility of a small spark setting off a great explosion, the speaker stressed that "If one puts his power into contact

Schaumburg Farmer
Killed as Truck
Turns Into Ditch

August Greve, farmer of Schaumburg, was instantly killed last Thursday afternoon, May 25, when his truck went into a ditch by the Roselle road, about half a mile north of Roselle. He was 69 years of age.

The funeral service was Sunday at 2:30 o'clock from the Karstens Funeral Home in Arlington Heights, Rev. H. A. Kossack of the First Presbyterian church in Arlington Heights officiating. Burial was in the Greve family cemetery in Wild Cat's Grove in Schaumburg township.

August Greve was born October 9, 1863, in Schaumburg Township, Ill., on the old Greve homestead 2½ miles west of Nebel's corner, on Higgins road. He was baptized and confirmed in the Schaumburg Lutheran church. He was married to Miss Wilhelmine Fasse of Schaumburg, February 25, 1892. She passed away in 1900. Two children were born of this union, one boy passed away in infancy and the other son, Edwin, died away at the age of 31 years (1926).

He leaves to mourn, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Greve of Schaumburg; two granddaughters; two sisters; one brother; six sisters-in-law and three brothers-in-law.

JUDICIAL ELECTION IMPORTANT

Fate of Legislation, Savings, Involved; 6
a. m. to 5 p. m.

Caution—if any desire to "scratch" a ballot, that is, vote for certain candidates of different parties, no cross can be made in the party circle, otherwise the ballot will be thrown out. This warning applies to this particular election.

A very important state and county judicial election, as well as one for delegates to a convention for or against repeal of the 18th Amendment, will be held next Monday in the various precinct polling places, from 6 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The issues are of party judicial support or else a judicial check on legislation sponsored by the powerful state and county administrations, although here in Cook county there is no opposition to Frederic R. De Young, well known as a Republican, but running in the Democratic column. The fate of the Sales Tax, Workers' Tax and other legislation of like nature is likely to depend in part on the composition of the Supreme court. Another issue is one of politically fostered receiverships in which political judges are mainly responsible, and in which many people have been robbed of savings in a time of distress. Then there is the general issue of individual fitness.

Three tickets are in the field—the Democratic, containing a number of former Republicans, and therefore in effect a coalition ticket; the Republican and the People's Judiciary. Republicans are proclaiming that they have none of the "Receivership" judges on their ticket.

There are 20 judges to be elected to the Circuit court of Cook county, two to the Superior Court, one to the Horner vacancy in the probate court.

China Missionary To Talk at St. Peter's

Friends of Christian missions will be delighted with the illustrated talk of the Rev. Louis Schwartzkopf on mission work in China at St. Peter Lutheran church, Sunday evening at 8:30.

The speaker is well versed in his subject for he has seen eight years of active service as a Lutheran missionary in Ichang, Hupeh province, the scene of many clashes between Chinese war lords. While engaged in his Gospel work, he secured many interesting pictures of the people, country, customs, temples and idols of ancient China. Some of these pictures will be shown in colored slides, and in addition, he will display curious, Chinese mementoes which he gathered during his missionary travels.

This entertaining program has been arranged in preparation for the annual mission festival, which will be observed on the following Sunday. Hearing Rev. Schwartzkopf and seeing his pictures and objects of interest will be a profitable diversion. No admission will be charged but a free will offering will be taken during the program.

Wet delegates from Cook county are all from Chicago, except one from Cicero, and include the names of well known luminaries in political party circles. Dry delegates contain the names of prominent educational, civic, religious and social workers. Several of these reside in Evanston, Oak Park and Wilmette.

Whatever one's personal belief, next Monday is the time to register it with some effect. Polls are open in the various precincts from 6 a. m. to 5 p. m.

ORGANIZATIONS IN PARADE ON MEMORIAL DAY

Ceremonies Held at Arlington Heights
Cemetery

Observance of Memorial Day in Arlington Heights was generally in accordance with custom during recent years.

A parade formed at the village hall and marched to the park at Chestnut and Fremont streets, where Merle Guild post, American Legion, placed flowers before the Civil War veterans' monument. Before the monument to the World war soldiers from Arlington Heights were placed a wreath bouquet and flags.

In the line of march were color guards from Merle Guild post, and Veterans of Foreign Wars post No. 981, V. F. W. members, American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps in uniform, Legion members and members of the Village board, the two ladies auxiliaries, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and an unusually large number of school children accompanied by teachers. The parade went east on Fremont street to Dunton, north to Euclid, east to Douglas, where it fell out and took to private cars and busses, one a Metz and two a Kehe.

On Euclid avenue in front of the cemetery the parade formed again, and with muffled drums ascended to the top of the hill where a hollow square was formed and program begun. Wm. C. Bockmeyer, commander of Merle Guild post, stepped forward, saying:

"Friends, we are gathered here today to pay our respects to those who have met the supreme sacrifice in the service of our country." A memorial prayer was read by the chaplain of the post.

BASEBALLMERCHANTS NOSE OUT AUSTIN BARONS*Cherwin Scintillates On Mount and at Bat

Featured by Ed. Cherwin's appearance in the 4th inning as relief hurler, the Arlington Merchants won their second straight game last Sunday, hammering Fowler for 12 hits and an 8 to 7 verdict.

Cherwin, twirling two-hit ball for his six inning stay on the mound after Lefty Krohn left at the end of the third, was credited with the victory.

The Barons nicked the scoring column first on a single by A. Adams and a double by Whalen, scoring A. Adams and McSteens. Whalen also scored on Anderson's long fly to Brodman.

The Austinites came back again with the head of the batting list and scored three more runs on 2 hits in the third inning.

With a 6-run lead to their credit, the Barons' von Austin apparently thought the game was over and took things easy for remainder of the game. For several innings it did look as if the game was over, but the Merchants kept bearing down and were rewarded for their hard work in the sixth inning. They rose up in all their titular majesty in the sixth and tied the score with six runs and six hits. How they came back!

The local boys forged ahead with one marker in the seventh, but it was not sufficient to win the contest, as the Barons came back in the eighth inning with one run, tying the score again.

Arlington, in their half of the eighth, scored another run on one hit and 2 errors, thus putting them in the lead once more.

The pace was too strong for the Austin team, and they folded up in the ninth inning, giving Arlington an 8 to 7 verdict.

The Merchants are playing "heads up" baseball. They never give up until the last man is out. In their last two games they have shown a spirit of cooperation and fight. The boys are doing everything possible to give Arlington Heights a reputation in baseball. Your support will help the team in realizing their ideals which they have set up on the road to success. So let's do everything possible and push the youths along and over the thorny spots. Only the best teams which Chicago and its suburbs have to offer are being booked.

Decoration Day Game

The Merchants dropped a close ball game to the Maywood Panthers on Decoration Day, 2 to 0. The game was played in one hour and 30 minutes. For seven innings, the game was scoreless. Up to that time, the Panthers collected 4 hits off Melvin Kehe, the diminutive southpaw, and Arlington got their only two hits in the 5th and 7th innings. It was an exciting game from start to finish. It was one of very few games where harmony played an important role. Maywood is rated as the strongest team in Chicago circles. It boasts of such stars as Art Brashall, Younger, Young, and Zito. Your local boys received more recognition at the end of the game than did the home club.

The batteries for Arlington were M. Kehe and A. Meyer; for Maywood, Jake, Pat, and Younger catching.

Red Wings Win Two Games from Elmhurst Long Grove Teams

The Arlington Heights Red Wings came through the holidays with two wins, one over Elmhurst on Sunday, and trimming Long Grove Memorial Day by a score of 11 to 0.

On Sunday afternoon the Red Wings, who were obliged to give Elmhurst a return game, did so, and handed Elmhurst another defeat by a score of 9 to 5.

Schaefer pitching for the Red

Wings came through in splendid form by striking out 14 men and allowing only six scattered hits, also pulling himself out of the hole easily in several cases where Elmhurst had men on, due to a few errors on the Red Wings.

Label, pitching for Elmhurst, was spiked for 13 hits and struck out 4 men. Only once did Elmhurst come close to the heels of the Red Wings, that being in the seventh inning when the score was 5 to 1 in favor of the Red Wings. Elmhurst scoring 2 runs to make it 5 to 3. But the Red Wings, seeing some more runs were needed, sent out the heavy artillery in the eighth, and banged in four more runs. Final score, Red Wings, 9; Elmhurst, 5.

On Memorial Day, the Red Wings trimmed the Long Grove boys by a score of 11 to 6. "Peanuts" W. Meyer hurling for the Red Wings pitched a bang-up game, allowing Long Grove but 4 scattered hits and all through the game forcing Long Grove to pop up for nothing but outs. With his teammates giving him their usual good support, "Peanuts" had nothing to worry about. Tonne pitching for Long Grove was knocked out of the box in the sixth inning when Ward was put in, who was also hit hard; the Red Wings collecting a total of 13 hits.

"Nice going," says Charlie, the Red Wing manager.

On next Sunday afternoon Crystal Lake is coming out here and they say they can take the Red Wings for a ride. What do you say, fans, can they do it. Well, with your usual good support the Red Wings say they should try it. So a good game is in store for Sunday, and bring along a good strong pair of jungs. See you all out Sunday at the Red Wing ball park, 500 S. Highland avenue.

Arlington Heights Indoor Base Ball League

Mr. Flentie, in reply, stated that Arlington Heights was adopting higher license fees and more restrictions than neighboring villages and cities.

Mr. Barrett was the first member of the Board to speak up. Replying to Mr. Flentie, he said, "I talked with Mr. Dittus of Maywood today. I asked him if they were closing on Sunday, and they were not. However, they had a low license. He felt that with low licenses, they would not constitute saloons. They were selling only on one floor, the first floor, and windows had to be open to view. They could not sell draught beer."

Mr. Flentie replied that they were not supposed to sell draught beer in Des Plaines, but he recently saw five places there where they were doing it.

Mr. Thal said, "The theory of the government is that 3.2 beer is not intoxicating. It is not the intent of this ordinance to go against the Government in the sale of intoxicating liquor."

Mr. Ankley—"If the ordinance is put through, will the village board see to it that it is enforced?"

Mr. Ashton—"Why do they want to keep open on Sunday? I make a living six days a week. Why can't they make their living six days a week?"—Don't you think it would be wise to investigate those people who want to open up now, and see if they have not disobeyed the law? How about those who have been operating?" (Applause.)

We are entitled to supervise what the sale of draught beer?"

Mr. Thal stated that in his legal opinion "soft drinks" could be prohibited, but just "draught beer" alone could not be on Sunday.

Mr. Atkinson queried, "Just why is the Board so anxious that beer should be sold on Sunday? Why do they want to keep open Sunday?"

Mr. Flentie said that it was looking from the standpoint of revenue, and to enable ten or twelve fam-lies to earn an "honest living." Mrs. Atkinson—"At the expense of those who cannot afford to spend the money."

Mr. Blanche Ankley, speaking as a mother, raised the point that on Sunday many outsiders stop in Arlington Heights, people difficult to control, and that even now they were making the day disorderly down town and sometimes unfit for children to be out.

Mr. Edwin Sieburg, who had stepped in regarding another matter, joined in the discussion, saying, "Put it up to the people." And, "In these days, the women drink more than the men." This caused laughter, and Mrs. Flentie shot back, "If that is the case, then the men should protect the women." (More laughter.)

Mr. L. L. Campbell asked, "In case of appeal of the 18th Amendment, would this ordinance have to be changed?" Mr. Flentie answered that it would have to be changed entirely.

Mr. Thal said, "The theory of the government is that 3.2 beer is not intoxicating. It is not the intent of this ordinance to go against the Government in the sale of intoxicating liquor."

Mr. Ankley—"If the ordinance is put through, will the village board see to it that it is enforced?"

Mr. Ashton—"Why do they want to keep open on Sunday? I make a living six days a week. Why can't they make their living six days a week?"—Don't you think it would be wise to investigate those people who want to open up now, and see if they have not disobeyed the law? How about those who have been operating?" (Applause.)

We are entitled to supervise what the sale of draught beer?"

Mr. Ladas of the Arlington Cafe, having come in, charged the business, claiming that when people invest their life savings in a business they are entitled to freedom to profit by it. He said he had been in many countries; and he had no fault to find with saloons. "What does it mean—the Sabbath Day?" citing some history at the time of Constantine, to explain the origin of the Sabbath.

Mrs. Atkinson—"Are 12 to 15 business men going to say we are going to have saloons or are the 5,000 people in Arlington Heights going to say?" The business men have been going on for years. Why do you say that they have to go bankrupt now?"

Mr. Ashton—"Who supports the business men?"

Mr. Edwin Sieburg—"It would be just too bad for the people of Arlington Heights if they did not keep open on Sunday."

Mrs. Noyes—"Speaking for the young people of Arlington Heights, we are only asking one day."

A special election on the subject was discussed on the board, then dropped.

Mr. Flentie explained he was afraid if Sunday closing were adopted in Arlington Heights that due to the low county license a number of places would open just outside the village limits.

Mr. Barrett—"It would be better to have them around the outside of town than to have them closed."

Mr. Flentie—"It would be better to have them around the outside of town than to have them closed."

Another member of the graduating class was Russell Kiefer, until recently a pupil of Chicago public schools.

Preston S. Foster, who played a crook part in "I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang" and Killer Mears in "The Last Mile," has been graduated from heavy parts to play his first leading role for Warner Bros., opposite Miss Stanwyk. He has the role of a young evangelist, who is infatuated with the beautiful young bank bandit he is trying to reform.

The story is a revelation of the life of women prisoners in the California prison and is based upon actual prison experiences of Dorothy Mackaye, the actress and co-author of the play. She served a term in the institution after the death of her husband in a tragic brawl that stirred Hollywood and the theatrical world a few years ago.

For the accurate and colorful background for the unusual scenes within the prison walls, a replica of the women's section of the institution was constructed on the Warner Bros. lot. In order to make both atmosphere and action correct, a former inmate of San Quentin prison, a woman of high intelligence, was engaged to act as technical advisor throughout the picture.

The story is that of a beautiful girl who turns crook, robs a bank, is caught and sent to prison. She holds a fatal fascination for a young evangelist, whom she uses as a tool to assist in the jail break of two of her pals. The plot foiled, and believing the reformer is also a stool pigeon, she seeks vengeance when released. But when he refuses to turn her over to the police after she has shot and wounded him, and she finds he had not revealed the plot, she is swept off her feet by the intensity of his love.

The guests, Mesdames Einar Ihles, Henry Krohn, Wm. Scholzman, August Schulzeneburg, Art Windeim, Wm. Weber, Henry Wilke, Martin Wilke, Miss Lydia Hitzman and Miss Gilbert Fries from Des Plaines. After the refreshments games were enjoyed. Prizes were won by Mrs. Gilbert Fries, Mrs. Henry Krohn, and Mrs. Raymond Fries.

One of the pleasing and long to be remembered features of this delightful party was the presentation of a beautiful purse to the guest of honor, Mrs. Raymond Fries, and in anticipation of her long voyage this purse was filled with needed articles. The bon voyage toasts in farewell were given in individual little verselets long to be treasured by their traveling friend who leaves surrounded by clouds of good wishes from her sincere friends.

Mrs. Raymond Fries is to leave New York June 10, for Munburg A-Salle, Germany, to visit her relatives and friends.

INFANT WELFARE DANCE

A good time was had by all who attended the Infant Welfare Benefit dance at Shayne's Arlington ballroom last Saturday night, May 27. There were old-time dances, modern dances and plenty of waltzes, and every one seemed to enjoy himself immensely. It was an evening of good clean fun and dancing. Despite another dance held the same night that took away a good number of persons that had planned to come, there was a good attendance and some money was made for this most worthy cause—the Baby Clinic of Arlington Heights.

The Infant Welfare wishes to take this opportunity to thank each and every one who attended the dance or bought tickets.

APPRECIATION

We, the officers and directors of the Wheeling State Bank are profoundly thankful for the reception that was given last Saturday when this bank re-opened for business. The personal expressions of confidence were most gratifying and the actions of depositors spoke more eloquently than any words of the fact that the people appreciated the resumption of the normal banking services.

Our re-opening was made possible by the cooperation of both stockholders and depositors, emphasizing in a dramatic way that this bank is a community institution. The continued welfare of the business men, organizations and hundreds of individuals depend in no small degree on the successful operations of the bank. That the people of the community of Wheeling recognize this fact is most gratifying.

We appreciate more than words can tell this evidence of confidence and we will dedicate ourselves anew to the operation of an institution that will adhere strictly to the old accepted policies of sound banking and to the newly established standards of liquidity.

The pupils of the graduating class had their rings made and will be a remembrance also of the Century of Progress.

The children attending school and all the other smaller children in the district had a real picnic last Thursday. The day was ideal for the occasion. The children got away with five gallons of ice cream. After dinner the boys and girls had a ball game and the smaller boys and girls had various races where prizes were given. Everybody went home having the best picnic they ever had.

Many of the parents of the children assisted Miss Lawlor to see the sights at the World's Fair grounds last Friday. In spite of the weather all had a fine time.

Our smaller children, 2nd, 3rd and 4th grade have made records in reading the library books, fitted to the grades, she has been able to get from ten to twenty every two weeks.

The Des Plaines library were more than pleased to think those books were circulated between so many small children and having been read.

This will be our last writing and we will say good bye to all; also Mr. Paddock and we hope to be back again next fall after our vacation.

A Judge of Good Cooking

Next to being elected judge of the Circuit Court at the June 5 election, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Fihe, shown above with her two daughters, would rather bake the best apple pies in Cook county. Despite her many duties as a lawyer and president of the Mother's Milk Bureau of Chicago, a charitable organization which is credited with having saved the lives of hundreds of new-born infants of delicate physique during the past three years, Mrs. Fihe finds time to play the role of "Mother," which she loves, and bake numerous sweetmeats for her children. According to Jean, 11 and Mary, 7, shown left to right next to their mother in the photo, their mothers' election in June 5, would be unanimous if she could only bake enough apple pies to take care of all the voters. Mrs. Fihe, who is running on the regular Republican ticket as the only woman candidate in the field, expects to be assigned to the Juvenile branch of the Circuit Court where she disposed of several thousand cases of delinquent children, as former assistant to Judge Mary Bartelme, the present incumbent, who is retiring.

Judges Solely Blamed For Excessive Fees In Receiverships

"When the bank depositors and investors in real estate bonds blame the receivers and their attorneys for the outrageously excessive fees they have collected, they are simply wasting their time," declared Noble W. Lee, Republican candidate for Circuit Court Judge in an address in the 33rd Ward Tuesday night. "Their anger should be directed at the judge who allowed the fees, he continued, "because the judge and the judge alone has the power to set those fees. All the Circuit Court judges who have allowed such fees are now running for re-election on the Democratic ticket, but there is no receivership judge on the Republican ticket."

Discussing the Simmett committee investigation, Mr. Lee stated, "It is amazing to find the judges coming before the committee and saying that they are compelled to accept the recommendation of the master in chancery as to the fees for the receiver and his attorney. But not one of these judges has stated why he is compelled to accept the recommendation of a man who is simply his assistant. For a judge to be compelled to accept the advice of his assistant is as ridiculous a for the tail to wag the dog."

Set Dates for Stakes Arlington Race Track

Chicago, May 27—With the $35,000 added Arlington Classic set for the third Saturday and the $50,000 Arlington Futurity scheduled for the final afternoon of the 30-day meeting, dates for the stakes were announced today by Charles A. McCulloch, chairman of the Arlington Park Jockey Club directorate.

They are as follows:

Monday, June 26—Arlington Inaugural Handicap, $2,500 added for 3-year-olds and upward at seven furlongs.

Saturday, July 1—Hyde Park Stakes, $7,500 added for 2-year-olds at five and one-half furlongs.

Tuesday, July 4—Stars and Stripes Handicap, $10,000 added for 3-year-olds and upward at one mile and a furlong.

Saturday, July 8—Lassie Stakes, $10,000 added for 2-year-old fillies at six furlongs.

Saturday, July 15—Classic, $35,000 added for 3-year-olds at one mile and a quarter.

Saturday, July 22—Arlington Handicap, $10,000 added for 3-year-olds and upward at one mile and a quarter.

Saturday, July 29—Arlington Futurity, $25,000 added for 2-year-old colts and fillies at six furlongs.

The total distribution of money from the seven Arlington stakes should amount to approximately $130,000." Chairman McCulloch said, "and with our overnight purses closely approaching the levels of previous years Arlington Park should again have the highest total and greatest average daily payout in the world."

The stakes program was arranged following a conference of the executive committee and Racing Secretary Joseph McLennan and was designed so the shorter Hyde Park Stakes would serve as a stepping stone for the richer Lassie Stakes and Arlington Futurity, the same also holding true in the case of the Stars & Stripes and Arlington Handicaps, it was pointed out.

Only the Inaugural and Stars & Stripes Handicaps of the seven stakes are not scheduled for a Saturday, but there will be numerous other attractive features for the mid-week racing, Mr. McCulloch said, as Racing Secretary McLennan will have the finest horses in the country from which to draw.

PLAN TAXES ON BUYING ON WORKING

Misers, Loafers to Escape;
"Dole" Makes Votes;
Scorn Low Wages

Springfield, Ill.—The new Horner-Kerner sales tax bill now provides for a two per cent tax on all retail sales, including gasoline and farm products. The bill was introduced by Sen. Francis J. Loughran, Democrat of Chicago, brother of Mrs. Elizabeth Conkey, Democratic national committee woman for Illinois. He is reported to be in line for a good state job, rather than for renomination next year.

The administration has now coupled the Monroe bill, providing for a one-half per cent tax on certain classes of workers, with the sales tax. It will be amended to one per cent. The sales tax is expected to bring in $60,000,000 a year and the workers' tax $25,000 more.

The "Workers' Tax," opposing legislators assert, is even more vicious than the sales tax. It aims at particular groups such as plumbers, painters and paper hangers, while others in the building trades are not taxed. Any person who comes under the classifications of the workers' tax not only pays the sales tax as a consumer, but the additional workers' tax as well.

There is another bill in the senate which classifies about 680 occupations. Reports are that the Democrats will substitute this list for that of the 160 occupations now in the Monroe bill. This would bring in between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000 a year.

These two bills, it is plain, would put a premium on misers and loafers. The person who spent no money would pay no sales tax. The person who earned no money would pay no workers' tax. Persons with vast incomes from dividends, rentals, etc., would completely escape the tax which workers would have to pay.

Mr. Sachtlen played the Lohengrin wedding march as the party proceeded slowly down the aisle. The two ushers were Elmer Wolter and Louis Sass, Jr. The first two bridesmaids, Misses Eleanor Blaesing and Marie Pomplum, wore peach chiffon, and carried large bouquets of pink roses and baby's breath. The next two, Edna Koelper and Mathilda Koch, wore green chiffon, and carried large bouquets of yellow roses and baby's breath. The gowns were all made alike with crepe slippers to match, which completed their costumes. Miss Ella Koelper, the maid of honor, wore a gown of pink chiffon with little petals on the dress and cape, adding to the beauty of the gown, with a silver headress and pink crepe slippers, trimmed with silver to match. She carried a large bouquet of talisman roses and baby's breath. The little flower girl, Hazel Sass, preceded the bride, dressed in green georgette, strewing rose petals along her path.

Mr. Sasc ethered his daughter to the altar where the groom and his best man, Mr. Walter Sass, awaited them.

The bride was beautifully attired in a white satin gown including a long lace and satin train. The long plain veil with small bunches of orange blossoms on either side of the bonnet shaped headpiece, and a beautiful bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and baby's breath completed a very beautiful picture of the bride.

The song "Show Me the Way" was sung by Mrs. Zimmer, Mrs. Sachtlen and Rev. A. H. Zimmer.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at River road, where everyone enjoyed the congenial hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Sass. The newlyweds received scores of beautiful wedding gifts from relatives and friends, together with countless expressions of congratulation and best wishes for their future happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Bergen will make their new home on Canfield near Lawrence avenue.

Employers say many men would rather loaf on the dole than go to work at present day wages.

The "ins" admit that reducing unemployment relief would be political suicide. Instead, they want the dole system extended down-state.

Republicans charge that the Illinois Democratic machine either has no confidence in the national administration's prosperity plans, or that it is deliberately trying to put a $75,000,000 a year dole system on the backs of the already overburdened downstate taxpayers for political profit.

There is talk of a special session of the legislature to convene not later than Sept. 15. Misgivings as to the constitutionality of the new beer tax measure and the need of a new law is a reason given. The insurance moratorium law is also likely to be taken to the Supreme court; one recognized authority having pointed out that, in his opinion, the law is unconstitutional in less than nine different respects.
